Forgotten How to Blush?

Robert Buckner - February 7, 2012

What decent moral person did not suppose that the envelop would not once again be pushed when it was announced that Madonna would be the Super Bowl Half-Time Entertainment? Can there be any question that those in the positions which control these events and the broadcasting of them are ungodly and purposely look for opportunities to insult those whom they intend to offend – God included?

I would like to ask all Christian men – If you know that the NFL sanctions this sort of attack against the Christian and God – why do you watch and ultimately fiscally-support this? Can you really not conceive that you will be asked about your choices you make while here on this earth?

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 "This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Jeremiah 6:15 "Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall; at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith Jehovah."

Really? ...Does today's professed Believer really not have any moral discomfort with the degree of admiration of our culture (especially our children) of today's "Athlete's?" Would there be no uncomfortable feeling if God were sitting in your living room as you watched an NBA basketball game and viewed the disposition, attitude and known behavior, of the players – on and off of the court?

"Were you ashamed with what is committed (as Entertainment) in the Half-Time Show?"

If you were watching it with other people – perhaps those who were NOT Believers or Christians – what lesson did you teach them by viewing it in their company? Do you remember the glory you felt for God while you were viewing it? Do you remember thinking, "Thank you God for this opportunity to live yet another day to your Glory? ...maybe not.

When you reward such behavior with your viewing and supporting this entire industry of "Professional Sports" by making these individuals some of the wealthiest people on earth – what does that say to your Creator? Before Pilate, the Jews cried-out for Barabbas! No veiling of their desires there! Whom do you cry-out for? Who is it that you prefer? Whom do you raise-up with your attention and support?

I know that most people who will read this will think it is just an "extreme" reaction to only a few "Bad" people and some small weak moral aspects of the industry. However, any student of the Bible knows which tools of Satan, bring him the most success. His tactics are not those which require one to instantly; overnight; turn on their moral beliefs and against their spiritual conscience.

No, he may begin with bringing a sin into the light of a culture with humor (sitcoms, etc.). Then, that subject-of-humor must quite naturally receive a public hearing – a re*consideration* – because now, we can talk about it. Then, once it is able to be brought out into a public forum, those active in the sin will be brought from a position of shame into knighthood for being so brave as to persevere against the uncaring mean-spirited moral masses which are against them; they now become victims. Once they attain the status of victims then they can begin to demand correction of this wrong and before you know it – their perverted and sinful and abominable behavior becomes "Legally-Protected!"

And, how does this ultimate success for Satan begin? First the culture must be "Unashamed and unable to blush!" Satan's plan could not work – if this first concession were not made!

So, how are we feeling this morning "Sports Fans?" Proud of the latest foray into the world of sports? Did the God Fearing man's team win?

There may come a day (for as long as God's patience will continue) when this argument against the "Sports" and "Entertainment" industries will not seem as radical and outlandish as it may today. There may come a day when the ultimate revelation of the truth of what evil is represented within these chosen forms of entertainment, will be unmistakably visible to all. Wouldn't it be nice – if those who may realize the ungodly nature of it – would profess it now?

I am not sure how much more "In-your-face" Satan could make it than for a half-dressed woman to flip her middle finger in your face! She did not pretend that her clothing came undone and "accidentally" revealed herself to you. This seed-of-Satan wanted you to know that this is for everyone for who will be insulted! ...The question is – was that you; were you insulted; did you blush? ...Or, do you rationalize, "Well, that's just that wacky Entertainment crowd, doing what they do."
