

No Outrage???

Where is the Outrage???

6/07/2011 – David Hicks

Here are the faces of those whom [we], a supposed Christian nation have elected to represent us in the determination of laws that guide our great nation? Take a good look. These are only from 2010 and 2011, which is only half way over as of this month!

Democrat Anthony Weiner - Admitted to sending sexually suggestive photos of himself to young woman through his Twitter account, as well as other online affairs.

Democrat John Edwards – Admitted to an extra-marital affair with Rielle Hunter during his run for the presidency, while his wife was dying of cancer, and to fathering a child through the affair. The former US Senator has now been indicted for using campaign funds to allow Andrew Young hide Hunter during the campaign and even state that he, not Edwards was the father of Hunter's daughter.

Republican Chris Lee - Resigned hours after a news report that the married Congressman, who strongly promotes family values, had sent a shirtless picture of himself flexing his muscles to a woman via Craigslist, along with flirtatious emails. He did not use a pseudonym or a false email address, but relied on his congressional email for all communication.

Democrat Eric Massa - Resigned to avoid an ethics investigation into his alleged groping and tickling of a young male staffer.

Republican Mark Souder - Resigned to avoid an ethics investigation into his admitted extramarital affair with a female staffer. Famously, he and the staffer had made a public video in which they both extolled the virtues of abstinence.

These faces only represent the sexual scandals, and do not cover the tax evasion scandals, financial gift scandals, etc... We don't have that kind of space in this article!

Friends, I know this does not represent the majority of those who represent us, nor does it take away from the handful of those who have not forgotten that they serve the people of this nation for the improvement of society.

However, what is absolutely evident is that these faces are becoming more and more common. What I want you to consider is that we are being told that we do not need the binding, restricting, moral codes that God has given through Jesus Christ the Lord.

Really?

I wonder if Mr. Weiner were asked today if he could have used the moral code of God's word, the knowing guide of conscience to understand that his actions would have dire consequences, not just to himself, but to millions of young men who now think they can do the same without consequence; if he might have a different understanding. Sadly, maybe not!

The fact of the matter is this; there is no outrage!!!

Christian nation? What a joke!

If we were a Christian nation, the public outrage would be such that not only Mr. Weiner, but all who came before and all who would come after would face such swift and absolute castigation, that by the very nature of consequence, would put a stop to this viral epidemic of perversion, and would set the tone for the rest of society!

However, the silence of so-called Christians has not only allowed these men to exist, but really think that they have not done anything worth consequence that a simple, "I'm Sorry", wouldn't cover. Like Mr. Weiner, most have to be driven from office, fighting and scratching all the way out.

So, since the laws of God have fallen from the public institute, so the society has also gone.

We now find this same thing in the business world, among its executives. It is found in the local principalities. City managers have to actually create policies for the use of public equipment; as computers are used in the offices to seek porn, etc... We see this same thing in all the social networks; which our children are being given access too. Even worse is that we find it the Lord's church as well! All the while, we are constantly told that we don't need the restrictive moral obligations that originate from the instruction of God.

Literally, our entire society has become so used to perversion, that it is being unraveled before our very eyes! Here is an article concerning the detriment of the lack of God in the core of our country (the family nucleus of marriage), note:

VOICE OF ESSENTIAL LIBERTY

Faith & Family

"For the first time in history, less than half of Americans now live in married-couple households. The new finding by the Census Bureau reflects the most profound change in the nature of American society ever to have occurred, yet practically no one talks about it. Only 48 percent of American households are made up of married couples. ... What all this means is that increasing numbers of children are growing up without two parents, and few policymakers seem to care, even though the societal consequences bode ill for the future. Myriad studies have documented that children who grow up without two parents are more likely to do worse in school, drop out, commit crimes, and earn less during their lifetimes than those who are raised with both parents, even adjusting for economic status and race. They are also far less likely to have stable relationships and marriages as adults, thus fueling the cycle of marriage breakdown. Perhaps the most alarming result of this family breakdown comes from a new analysis of longitudinal data from a large cohort of young children -- primarily bright, white children born to middle-class and affluent parents -- who were followed throughout their lives. The study found that even relatively privileged children suffered when their parents divorced. ... In the end, it's the children who pay for the devastating effects of divorce. It's time we start putting our kids first." -- columnist Linda Chavez

Marriage, as instituted by God, has always been a foundation calling for the protection of society, family, and morality!

God stated that marriage was for the propagation of children, to supply companionship, and provide for the lusts of the flesh by a wholesome standard. To this God said it was “Very Good” (Genesis 1:31).

As sin entered alongside the first man and women, so did the perversion of all that God established in this original mandate as wholesome. As Satan delighted in the destruction of marriage, soon after would come the practice of polygamy, extramarital affairs, homosexuality, universal fornication, rape, incest, prostitution, and seduction.

What is the solution to this age long attack on society? Realistically, there is only one!

- The people of God through Jesus Christ our King must become the people of God.
- In unison stand up and in one loud vote say enough!
- We must flood our representative's offices with our mail.
- We must flood TV stations with our outrage at the lewd programming.
- Announce to retailers, advertisers, and all businesses' that our dollars will not be theirs, until a change is made.

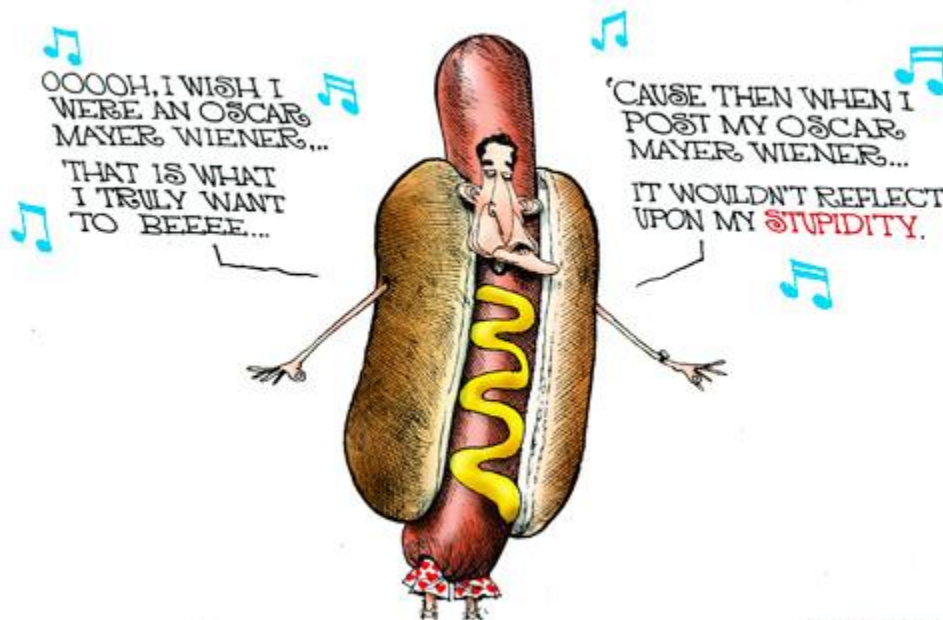

Go ahead and do nothing! You might as well put your picture up next to the ones above! Giving it God's speed is the same as doing it yourself.

As one we are only as loud as our own social circle; but as many; we can be a force to have to be reckoned with!

Stand up and evoke in public the mighty name of God and His moral laws. Demand His standards for society. Write everyone you know, speak of it with boldness. Bring on the A.C.L.U., the liberal loons, the career politicians (without regard of party). If we are united in the name of Jesus Christ, who may stand against us?

Unless we are happy about seeing more images such as the cartoon below, true children of God through Christ had better step it up!
