

What About Today?

By: Robert Buckner

The Christian today is continually faced with increasing efforts to have past accepted-truths removed from the reality our day-to-day lives here in America.

Basic fundamental and foundational truths regarding the very history of the inception of this nation are constantly being challenged by contemporary liberal-left history-revisionists.

The true intent and meaning of the Constitution and other fundamental documents are today continually being questioned regarding the manner in which they have been [correctly] understood.

There seems no perceivable limit to the radical extreme these proponents of lies will go! Those who have integrity in their understanding of Truth are at a complete disadvantage in attempting to debate, resist, or, hold-back, the purveyors of non-truth due to the strategic-strength that a brazen-liar does initially seem to possess in most common forums today!

I suppose that this may today be more the norm than not, as it does seem that relativism is now the more acceptable platform from which to launch a discussion or debate than a determined or acknowledged truth.

So, even the concept or reality that there can be, only one singular absolute truth, is being increasingly discounted as a form of intellectual-currency in a debate in our contemporary world today!

Things that we have just accepted for hundreds of years in America – because they have been accepted, for hundreds-of-years in America - are not today, off-limits, to these hijackers-of-Truth. Consider the removal of prayer from various public venues. Consider that in courtrooms and schoolrooms across America the Ten Commandments have been removed from their walls. Consider that prior (and I mean Forever-Prior) to 1973 it was not legal for a mother and a doctor to murder and take an innocent life!

So, what do I think may be the next unbelievable long-accepted truth that the enemies of God; the enemies of America and the great liars-of-history will attempt to change? ... “What About Today?”

Can you think of anything that might possibly irk Satan and his evil demented little minions more than the fact that the way the majority of the world marks time is by the Birth and Life of Jesus Christ?

That's right, every day, even the ungodly-lefty's – in determining, what day it is -have to use a calendar which is calibrated according to the single and absolute truth and reality that Jesus Christ – the Son of God – did live!

Ironic that the lost will mark the continued approach of their pending eternal disposition and doom with a marker-of-time which is based upon Him who could have been – their Savior? Is it then, further irony that they will spend All Time in a place where there is No End To Time?
